A friend in the West gets us where the A thend in the west gets us where the hair is short by the following inquary, "Did you ever seemention made of an old and esteemed citizen, except that he died? I should like to know of it." We are inclined to think that our friend will have to worry along a few more years be-fore he hears of such an instance, and it is extremely doubtful if he ever gets the full particulars. And most people would rather be a young and doubtful member of the community than an "old and esteemed " corpse.

PUBLIC APPROVAL .-- Our suggestion that Governor Bradley should offer a liberal reward for the arrest of the mur-derers of Wright and Sanbourne is heartily approved by citizens generally. hearthy approved by chizens generally. The offer of the reward should extend to accessories as well as principals. The authors of the bloody deed must be of the most desperate character, and detectives ought to be stimulated to action by the hope of liberal compensation. Pioche Record, 23.
